Tudor Riddles

1. Four stiff standers, four dillydanders, two hookers, two snookers, and a flip flap.

2. Little Nanny Netticoat in a white petticoat; the longer she stands, the shorter she grows.

3. As round as an apple, as deep as a cup; all the king’s horses can’t draw it up.

4. A riddle, a riddle, as I suppose; full of eyes but never a nose.

5. Long legs, crooked thighs, little head, and no eyes.

6. Beef and bacon boiled in a hat; in four letters spell me that.

7. Red within, and red without, four corners and round about.
